

Young Garvan, together with the Garvan Institute, invites you to engage and discuss

Age and fertility: How late can I wait?

An enlightening and interesting talk for those that have ever wondered:

- How many years do I have left to have children?
- Can I wait until my 30s for a first birth?
- What is the risk of breast/ovarian cancer with delaying pregnancy?
- How can I manage both a career and motherhood?

Featuring panellists will be key industry professionals and personalities lead by MC Andrew O'Keefe.

Thursday July 10, 2008 at the Garvan Institute of Medial Research, 384 Victoria St, Darlinghurst

Drinks and canapes from 6.15pm. Forum commences promptly at 7.00pm and concludes at 8.30pm
Post-forum drinks at De Nom, Ruby Rabbit, 231 Oxford Street, Darlinghurst

Come along and be in the draw to win a lunch for two to the value of $200 in harbourkitchen&bar restaurant overlooking the opera house, located at Sydney's premier hotel, Park Hyatt Sydney.

Tickets are FREE but seats are limited.

Register securely online at www.garvan.org.au or call 02 9295 8110 to ensure your place is saved.

Young Garvan is a group of committed young supporters who raise awareness and funds for the Garvan Institute of Medial Research